

WOMEN OF THE MARKETS

ABOUT BLACKROCK

BlackRock's purpose is to help more and more people experience financial well-being. As a global investment manager and a leading provider of financial technology, our clients—from grandparents, doctors, and teachers to large institutions—turn to us for the solutions they need when planning for their most important goals. To achieve this, our workforce must reflect the diversity of our clients so that we can bring a wealth of perspectives and insights to solve their unique, complex challenges.

We already know that the best solutions result from the ideas and contributions of a diverse team of partners, and that more diverse teams tend to outperform homogeneous ones. But it's not enough to focus solely on building a diverse workforce. We take it one step further and ensure that each and every employee feels included, respected and valued – that they belong. We are building a culture of innovation, curiosity, and compassion, one that enables every employee to make an impact.
